

Terms and Conditions for Weddings

It is your responsibility as the Client to ensure you read and understand the terms and conditions contained within this document. By signing a Booking Contract with the University of Exeter you will be legally bound to adhere to them. For the purpose of this document it is important to recognise that Event Exeter is a department within the University of Exeter, providing event management services.

This Agreement is made between the University of Exeter of Northcote House, Queen's Drive, Exeter EX4 4QJ (the "University" and/or "Event Exeter") and the Client, as detailed in the Booking Contract attached hereto.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the aforesaid organisations/individuals may be referred to individually as a 'Party' and collectively as the 'Parties'.

Whereas:

The Client is entering into a contract with the University to deliver goods and services to the Client for an event (the "Event") as detailed in the Booking Contract. Provision of said goods and services for the Event will be subject to the following Terms and Conditions:

1. Event Bookings

1.1 The details of all goods and services to be provided by Event Exeter (on behalf of the University) to the Client for the Event (the "Services"), and which (if any) of the University's premises will be hired by the Client for use in the Event (the "Venue"), will be as detailed in the Booking Contract attached hereto (the "Booking Contract"). The Booking Contract once signed by the Client, together with these Terms and Conditions, will form the entire agreement between the Parties for the Event (hereinafter the "Agreement").

1.2 The Event Booking form also details all start and finish dates and times for the Event (the "Event Period"), the number of guests or attendees the Client expects to be present at the Event, and all applicable charges for the Services and the Venue or the basis on which the charges for the Services and the Venue will be calculated (the "Charges").

1.3 The Booking Contract includes any special Terms and Conditions the University may choose to impose on supply of the Services or use of the Venue. In the event of any conflict between these Terms and Conditions and the Booking Contract, the latter shall take precedence.

2. The Charges

2.1 The costs to the Client for the Services shall be the Charges as detailed in the Booking Contract. Payment of the Charges shall be made by the Client to the University in accordance with the provisions of Clause 7 herein.

2.2 Subject to the provisions of Clause 6 herein, the University reserves the right to alter the Charges for the Services which have been offered to the Client at any time not later than six (6) months prior to the Event. The University shall provide the Client with written notice of any such alteration to the Charges. Should the University give notice to the Client of its intention to alter the Charges from those stated in the Booking Contract, the Client shall be entitled, within twenty eight (28) days of receipt of such notification, to cancel the booking.

- 2.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 2.2 above, the imposition of, or variation in any rate of, Value Added Tax (“VAT”) or any other applicable taxes from time to time shall not in any case entitle the Client to cancel the booking for the Event.
3. Provisional Bookings
- 3.1 Where a Client makes a provisional booking, the University will hold this booking for a period of four (4) weeks.
- 3.2 Where the University has not received a signed Booking Contract within the timeframes above, unless the University has agreed an extension to the above timescales, all provisional bookings will be automatically cancelled after the expiry of the relevant timescale.
4. Confirmation of Booking and Payment of Deposits
- 4.1 The Client warrants that all information that is provided to the University in the Booking Contract, or elsewhere relating to the Event and the booking, is accurate and complete at the time of formation of the Agreement. The Client understands that the University is relying upon this information and, should this information prove not to be accurate or complete, the Client would bear any liability arising.
- 4.2 All bookings are considered provisional until a) the University receives a signed Booking Contract or the University has confirmed by email that the Agreement has been formed and b) the non-refundable deposit is paid by the Client to the University.
- 4.3 In order for an Event to be confirmed, the signed booking contract and a £500.00 non-refundable deposit must be received by the University no later than 4 weeks from the date of issue of the booking contract.
- 4.4 The deposit will be credited against the final invoice.
5. Number of Attendees and Alterations to the Booking Contract
- 5.1 Subject to the provisions of Clause 5.4 herein, the Client will be responsible for payment of the Charges in respect of the number of attendees at the Event, as stated in the Booking Contract. There shall be no reduction of the Charges if the actual number of attendees at the Event is less than the number stated in the Booking Contract.
- 5.2 Should the number of attendees the Client expects to attend the Event increase following signature by the Parties of the Agreement, subject to the provisions of Clause 6 herein, the Charges payable by the Client for the Event shall be recalculated according to any additional services to be provided to the Client by the University.
- 5.3 As a fire precaution, the maximum number of attendees at the Event or permitted to enter the Venue shall be as specified by Event Exeter on the Booking Contract, and must not under any circumstance be exceeded.
- 5.4 The Client must inform Event Exeter as soon as reasonably possible if the expected number of attendees due at the Event changes, and in any case no less than fourteen (14) working days in advance of the Event. Where there is a significant change in expected numbers of attendees at the Event (i.e. there is going to be a 10 per cent (10%) or above variation from the number specified on the Booking Contract), the Client must notify Event Exeter in writing at least one (1) calendar month prior to the Event.

5.5 In any case, Event Exeter must be notified in writing of the final number of attendees expected by the Client to attend the Event, a minimum of five (5) working days prior to the Event.

5.6 Confirmation of the catering requirements (including any specific food requirements) must be received at least 14 working days prior to the Event. If this confirmation is not received, the University will decide on the level and extent of the catering supplied in accordance with the charging levels in the Booking Contract.

6. Additional Services

6.1 Should the Client require the University to provide any additional goods and services for the Event beyond the Services as detailed on the Booking Contract, following signature of the Booking Contract but prior to the Event, provision of said additional services shall be at the sole discretion of the University, and where the University agrees to provide any such services, this shall be confirmed in writing by the University, which shall include any applicable additional charges and/or additional conditions. Once the University issues the confirmation in writing, such confirmation shall constitute a variation to this Agreement. In all other respects the terms of this Agreement shall remain as those previously agreed between the Client and the University as detailed herein.

6.2 Any additional staff requirements necessitated by the Event will be charged to the Client at a pre-agreed rate and set out on the Booking Contract.

6.3 Any additional charges will be agreed in advance and included in the invoice issued by the University in accordance with the provisions of Clause 7.1.

7. Payment of the Charges

7.1 In consideration of the University making available the Venue and supplying the Services to the Client for the Event, the Client agrees to pay the Charges within thirty (30) days of receipt of an invoice from the University unless otherwise agreed by the University in writing.

7.2 Six (6) weeks prior to the event the University will invoice the Client for the outstanding balance of monies due.

7.3 Time of payment is of the essence.

7.4 Payment by the Client shall be made to the University without any deduction or set off. The University reserves the right to claim interest and compensation for debt recovery costs under the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 and the Late Payment of Commercial Debts Regulations 2002.

7.5 The University reserves the right to set off sums owed by the University to the Client against sums owed by the Client to the University.

7.6 Interest on an overdue invoice shall accrue (on a daily basis) from the day when payment becomes due until the date of payment (whether before or after judgment) at a rate of 4% above Barclays Bank Plc's base lending rate at the time of the relevant invoice.

7.7 All Charges will be charged VAT at the rate applicable at the time of the Event. All cancellation charges with the exception of the non-refundable deposit will be charged exempt of VAT.

VAT exempt rates may be available to organisations that qualify as an “eligible body” as defined by the VAT Act 1994 Schedule 9, Group 6. A VAT exemption form will be supplied and should be completed and returned to Event Exeter.

8. Cancellation/Partial Cancellation/ Postponement of the Event by the Client

- 8.1 In the unfortunate circumstances that the Client needs to cancel or postpone the Event, the Client shall give Event Exeter verbal notice of cancellation as soon as reasonably practicable.
- 8.2 Before any booking or Event is considered to be officially cancelled by the Client, cancellation of the booking must be notified in writing to Event Exeter and the Client will be liable to pay compensation to the University (which the Client acknowledges represents a genuine pre-estimate of the loss likely to be suffered by the University) in respect of such cancellation, less an amount equal to the extent to which the University considers in its absolute discretion it has been able to mitigate its loss (the “Cancellation Charge”), which shall be calculated as follows:
- 8.2.1 If written notice of cancellation is received more than twelve (12) months prior to the Event: the amount of any third party charges reasonably incurred by the University for the Event on behalf of the Client prior to cancellation.
- 8.2.2 If written notice of cancellation is received between 6 months and 12 months prior to the Event: the amount of the deposit plus any third party charges reasonably incurred by the University for the Event on behalf of the Client prior to cancellation.
- 8.2.3 If written notice of cancellation is received between 6 months and two (2) months prior to the Event: 40% of expected total charges as set out in the Booking Contract and any third party charges reasonably incurred by the University for the Event on behalf of the Client prior to cancellation.
- 8.2.3 If written notice of cancellation is received between eight (8) weeks and three (3) weeks prior to the Event: 75% of expected total charges as set out in the Booking Contract and any third party charges reasonably incurred by the University for the Event on behalf of the Client prior to cancellation.
- 8.2.5 If written notice of cancellation is received within 3 weeks of the Event: 100% of the expected total charges as set out in the Booking Contract and any third party charges reasonably incurred by the University for the Event on behalf of the Client prior to cancellation.
- 8.3 The Cancellation Charge is exclusive of VAT.
- 8.4 The University will issue an invoice to the Client for any Cancellation Charge. The invoice will be payable by the Client in full within 30 days from the invoice date.

9. Cancellation of the Event by the University

- 9.1 The University reserves the right in its absolute discretion, and without giving reasons, to refuse or cancel any booking at any time prior to the Event commencement date.
- 9.2 The University reserves the right to cancel any bookings for the use of the Venue, or any other of its premises, or the premises of the University at any time, where such cancellation arises due directly or indirectly to any event or circumstance beyond the University's reasonable control, including without limitation: fire, flood, earthquake, elements of nature or Acts of God, acts of war, terrorism, riots, malicious damage, civil disorders, rebellions or revolutions, strikes or lockouts, court orders, police orders or third party failure or non-performance and accepts no liability for any inconvenience or loss caused to the Client in consequence of such cancellation.

9.3 The University may also cancel the Event and terminate this Agreement with immediate effect, with no liability to the Client where:

9.3.1 the Event might in the University's reasonable opinion prejudice the reputation or business of the University;

9.3.2 the Event might in the University's reasonable opinion contravene or potentially put the University in breach of the Prevent duties placed on higher education institutions in relation to counter terrorism;

9.3.3 the University decides that the Event does not comply with the University's Freedom of Speech Policy and Code of Practice, which can be found at www.exeter.ac.uk/news/events/freedomofspeechpolicy/;

9.3.6 any proceedings are commenced relating to the bankruptcy of the Client in any jurisdiction to which the Client or any of its assets is subject;

9.3.7 the Client has, suffers or allows any execution to be levied on its assets or obtained against it;

9.3.8 the Client commits a material breach of any of its obligations under this Agreement;

9.3.9 the Client is unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 267 of the Insolvency Act 1986; or 9.3.10 the Client is more than 30 days in arrears with payment to the University for previously supplied services or, where pre-payments are due, where such pre-payments are not paid.

9.4 Termination of this Agreement by the University in accordance with this Clause 9 shall not affect the rights and duties the Parties accrued under this Agreement prior to termination.

9.5 Where this Agreement is terminated in accordance with the provisions of Clause 9.3, the University reserves the right to impose the Cancellation Charges as detailed in Clause 8.

10. Services Provided by Third Parties for the Event

10.1 The Client will seek prior written consent from Event Exeter should it wish to use any entertainment or services for the Event which will be supplied by a third party. Any such services must comply with all and any legislation, statutory codes and regulations. It shall be the sole responsibility of the Client to ensure that, where applicable, all electrical equipment used has a current Portable Appliance Test (PAT) Certificate(s). The University reserves the right to request proof from the Client, in the form of relevant documentation, that this provision is complied with in full.

10.2 All third party contractors arranged for the Event or brought into the Venue by the Client must be covered by their own valid Public Liability Insurance policy to a minimum level as advised by the University.

conference and event venue

- 10.3 The University reserves the right to object to the Client's intended use of any third party which the University reasonably considers to be unsuitable or inappropriate and to undertake, or require the Client to undertake, their removal from the Venue and the Event.
- 10.4 The Client agrees to indemnify the University in full against any claims, costs and expenses incurred by the University as a result of the Client's use of a third party supplier for the Event under the provisions of Clause 11.
- 10.5 The Client must obtain a risk assessment for any third party (including sub-contractors). Such risk assessments must be available for inspection at the Venue by Event Exeter (or any local authority inspector). The Client must ensure all risk assessments are complied with.
- 11. Use of the Venue
- 11.1 The Client undertakes to the University:-
- 11.1.1 to use the Venue only for the purpose of hosting the Event over the Event Period as stated in the Booking Contract;
- 11.1.2 not to use the Venue or any part of the Venue for any activities which could reasonably be considered to be dangerous, offensive, noxious, illegal or immoral or which are or may become a nuisance to the University or the owner or occupier of any neighbouring property;
- 11.1.3 not to do anything which might invalidate any insurance maintained by the University or the University in respect of the Venue or which might reasonably be expected to raise any insurance premium payable for the Venue;
- 11.1.4 not to bring to the Venue or any part of it any animals (except disability assistance dogs);
- 11.1.5 to indemnify the University in respect of the cost of making good any damage to the Venue suffered during the Event (excluding only fair wear and tear);
- 11.1.6 to indemnify the University against any damages, losses, costs, claims or expenses incurred by the University towards a third party arising out of or in connection with the Client's use of the Venue and/or the provision of the Services by the University, whether arising by reason of negligence of the Client or otherwise;
- 11.1.7 not to park or allow another person to park on or obstruct any highway route allowing access to the Venue;
- 11.1.8 not to make any alterations or attachments or additions to the Venue without the prior written consent of the University;
- 11.1.9 to procure that the Event takes place during the period agreed on the Booking Contract and to ensure that all guests have left the Venue no later than the end of said period or such time as the University shall have agreed in writing.
- 11.2 The University accepts no responsibility for any damage, however occasioned, to any vehicle parked on the University's premises.
- 11.3 No wines, spirits, food or beverage may be brought into the Venue by the Client or on the Client's behalf or that of any attendees at the Event for consumption at the Venue unless the University's prior written consent has been obtained, for which an additional charge will be levied.

- 11.4 The University or one of its nominated suppliers must be used as the sole purveyor of food and beverages at the Venue. All food and beverage consumed within the Venue must be provided by the University. It is not permitted to bring outside catering onto site.
- 11.5 The University may, at its sole discretion, assist the Client, where reasonably possible, with the storage of equipment that may be required for the Event. Should the University permit any such equipment to be stored on its premises, and the Client chooses to do so, such equipment shall be left by the Client entirely at the Client's own risk and the University shall accept no liability for any loss or damage of any sort, howsoever occasioned, to any item of equipment, furniture, stock or the like left in storage on premises owned or controlled by the University.
- 11.6 The Client acknowledges that s/he is aware that the University operates a No Smoking policy throughout all their properties and within a 5m boundary of its buildings. The Client is responsible for ensuring that neither the Client nor any of the attendees at the Event smoke in or around the Venue (and this prohibition shall include e-cigarettes). The University reserves the right to charge for any associated cleaning costs in the case of failure to comply with this policy.
- 11.7 Where there are any set up requirements for an Event, during build and breakdown periods access to the Venue will be restricted and controlled by the University or its nominated supplier.
- 11.8 If any items are to be delivered to the Venue prior to the Event, arrangements must be made with Event Exeter in advance. The University will use reasonable endeavours for the safekeeping of such items which will nevertheless remain at the owner's risk and the University will not be held responsible in the event of loss, theft or damage to the same. Any deliveries should be clearly marked with the Event title and date. The University cannot accept responsibility for vehicles and their goods parked on the University's premises.
- 11.9 At the end of the Event the Client shall ensure it returns the Venue in a clean and orderly state and shall remove all equipment and other items previously brought into the Venue.
12. Appropriate Conduct of Attendees
- 12.1 The University reserves the right to judge acceptable levels of noise or behaviour at the Event, whether this is by the Client or the Client's guests, attendees at the Event, representatives or contractors. The Client must ensure, and is solely responsible for, the compliance of the Client's guests, attendees at the Event, representatives or contractors with Event Exeter's directions as to noise or appropriate behaviour.
- 12.2 The University reserves the right to exclude or eject any person from the Event or the Venue where Event Exeter reasonably considers such person to be objectionable; and to terminate this Agreement and stop the Event without liability to refund any charges to the Client or offer any form of compensation, where necessary to prevent or terminate unacceptable noise or behaviour.

- 12.3 The Client shall indemnify the University against all and any losses, costs, damages and expenses suffered or incurred by the University arising out of any exclusion, ejection, termination or cessation of the Event and circumstances giving rise thereto.
- 12.4 The University reserves the right to charge the Client in full for any damage or destruction of property belonging to the University and for any unusual cleaning bills caused by or resulting from the activities of the Client or those of attendees at the Event.
- 12.5 The University may wish to take photographs during a hosted event for marketing purposes. The Client will be asked to give consent on behalf of those attending the Event, by completing a photography consent form.
- 12.6 The Client shall/ must:
- 12.6.1 ensure that no-one interferes with or damages or misuses any of the University's equipment, fabric, fixtures, fittings or decoration at the Venue;
- 12.6.2 not use any adhesive tape on any of the floor surfaces or stairways without the prior authorisation of Event Exeter;
- 12.6.3 not paint any stand or display without the prior authorisation of Event Exeter;
- 12.6.4 not remove or relocate any fixtures and fittings from within the Venue;
- 12.6.5 not interfere with any of the Venue's emergency lighting or signage by removing lightbulbs or masking them with materials of any type;
- 12.6.6 not fix drapes/curtains or any form of scenery without the prior authorisation of Event Exeter;
- 12.6.7 not drive staples or other fixings into any of the Venue's fabric (including woodwork, floor, plaster or staging) without prior authorisation from Event Exeter;
- 12.6.8 not affix posters or advertising to the Venue; and
- 12.6.9 where "gaffer" tape is to be used on floors, stages or other areas, it shall be of an approved quality that must be agreed with Event Exeter prior to the Event.
12. Appropriate Conduct of Attendees
- 12.7 Marquees and any other structure can only be arranged through and procured by Event Exeter.
- 12.8 Fireworks are normally permitted at the discretion of Event Exeter who will also procure on behalf of the client. Event Exeter may charge an administration fee to cover the communication requirements as covered by the University's firework policy, a copy of which will be provided upon request. A display can only go ahead if all conditions (including weather on the day) are met as per the risk assessment.
- 12.9 Sparklers are permitted at the venue subject to the Client:
- 12.9.1 ensuring that the Client and the Client's guests do not use any sparklers indoors;
- 12.9.2 ensuring that all children using sparklers are supervised at all times by a responsible adult; and
- 12.9.3 providing an adequate number of buckets of sand for the Client and the Client's guests to extinguish the sparklers in.

- 12.9.4 The University of Exeter accepts no liability for injury to persons or damage to property resulting from the use of sparklers by the Client or the Client's guests.
- 12.10 Bouncy castles and inflatable structures and inflatables generally, together with Bucking Bronco and other fairground-type rides and any other non-standard items are allowed but must be staffed at all times. No one under the influence of alcohol should be allowed to use any inflatable structure. A full risk assessment and public liability insurance must be provided to and approved by Event Exeter prior to the event.
- 12.11 Paper lanterns are prohibited within University grounds.
- 12.12 Candles and Tea lights are allowed providing they are contained in an appropriate glass holder/votive/candelabra and subject to a satisfactory risk assessment.
- 12.13 The Client and the Client's guests are permitted to scatter biodegradable confetti outdoors only. In the event that the weather is inclement the University may, at its sole discretion, allow the Client and the Client's guests to scatter some confetti indoors. The Client agrees to comply with any decisions of the University with regards to the cleaning up of any confetti which are communicated to the Client either during or before the Event.
- 12.14 Corkage shall be payable as per the Booking Contract.
13. Health, Safety Legal and Licensing
- 13.1 The Client must comply fully, and ensure full compliance of all sub-contractors, employees and guests, with the University's risk assessment for the Venue together with the University's Health and Safety Policy, a copy of which can be obtained from Event Exeter or via this link: <http://www.exeter.ac.uk/eventexeter>.
- 13.2 The Client must maintain free access to fire exits and fire-related equipment at all times, and they must be kept clear and visible at all times.
- 13.3 The Client, any visitors or attendees at the Event are not permitted to bring any item into the Venue that has the potential to endanger others (e.g. hazardous equipment such as gas cylinders, halogen gas and or unmaintained equipment). The University reserves the right to check any equipment and to refuse its use if deemed unsuitable or unsafe.
- 13.4 The Client must obtain prior approval from Event Exeter before using any special effects equipment in the Venue. It shall be the sole responsibility of the Client to ensure that, where applicable, all electrical equipment used has a current Portable Appliance Test (PAT) Certificate(s). The University reserves the right to request proof from the Client in the form of relevant documentation, that this provision is complied with in full.
- 13.5 The Client must comply with all advice and/or instructions supplied by Event Exeter relating to the use of the Venue which are necessary to ensure that any goods or equipment supplied as set out in this Agreement will be safe and without risk to health at all times when they are being set, used, cleaned or maintained by any person at work.
- 13.6 The Client shall indemnify the University in respect of any and all claims arising as a result of the Client's or the Client's guests' representatives or contractors activities during the Event and in respect of any loss arising from a breach of this contract.

- 13.7 In compliance with the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974 and the management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999, the Client and any associated contractor, sub-contractor or other third party supplies the University with a copy of the associated contractor, sub-contractor or other third party method statement and or risk assessment.
- 13.8 The Client is responsible for any children who attend the Event and their behaviour.
- 13.9 The Client and all attendees at the Event are under a duty of care to report to the University any situation during the Event that they believe to be potentially hazardous. In the context of fire prevention this may be something which could lead to an outbreak of fire or something which could hinder the safe evacuation of the premises in the event of a fire (e.g. obstruction of fire escapes).

14. Attendees' Clothing and Personal Property

- 14.1 The University does not accept responsibility for the Client's property or that of the attendees at the Event, the Client's guests, employees or subcontractors. A cloakroom may be made available during the Event for the convenience of the Client but any goods or personal belongings deposited in such cloakroom or left unattended at the Venue are deposited at the owner's own risk and without any liability on the part of the University.
- 14.2 The University does not accept any liability for loss or damage to any item of equipment, furniture, stock or the like left in storage on University premises.

15. Liability

- 15.1 No liability or responsibility is accepted by the University for the safety of or damage to or loss of any personal property belonging to the Client, attendees at the Event, or other visitors for damage to or loss from their vehicles except to the extent that such liability may result from the University's or its staff's negligence.
- 15.2 The University retains public liability insurance in respect of any Event. However, such insurance only applies in the event that the University or its staff is held to be negligent. The Client is therefore strongly advised to take out and maintain their own wedding insurance in respect of accidents or other matters of injury, loss or damage which may arise in connection with the Event, especially in the event that an accident occurs for which the Client is held to be responsible.
- 15.3 The University shall use reasonable care and skill in the performance of this Agreement.
- 15.4 Save insofar as such liability may not be lawfully excluded, the University shall have no liability or obligation under this Agreement or otherwise in contract or in tort arising out of or connected with the performance of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, loss, damage or delay of any nature whatsoever or howsoever caused whether direct or indirect or consequential and whether or not caused by the negligence of the University, its employees, agents or sub-contractors) save as expressly provided in this Agreement and, save as aforesaid, all warranties, terms, obligations or duties, express or implied by statute, common law or otherwise in relation to this Agreement or any term or terms thereof or its or their performance are hereby excluded.

- 15.5 The total liability of the University under this Agreement or otherwise (whether or not caused by the negligence of the University, its employees, agents or sub-contractors) arising out of or in connection with the performance or purported performance of or failure in the performance of this Agreement shall not exceed the total Charges (excluding VAT) payable by the Client to the University under the terms of this Agreement or TEN THOUSAND GBP (£10,000), whichever is the lower sum. The University expressly excludes liability for indirect or consequential loss or damage for loss of profit or goodwill which may arise out of or in connection with the performance or purported performance of or failure in the performance of this Agreement.

16. Signage/ Advertising

- 16.1 Where the Client wishes to have any banners to be hung in the Venue, then the cost of the staff charges will be recharged to the Client.
- 16.2 The Client must obtain the University's prior written approval if the Client wishes to attach any item to the walls, floors or ceilings of the Venue, or to any part of the hard landscaping or infrastructure of the campus.

17. Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of England. The University and the Client hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

18. Freedom of Information

The Client acknowledges that the University is subject to the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and shall assist and co-operate with the University in complying with all statutory obligations regarding information disclosure required by the provisions of this Act. The Client shall ensure that all information produced in the course of this Agreement or relating to this Agreement is retained for disclosure and shall permit the University to inspect such records as requested from time to time.

19. ????

20. Statutory Requirements

- 20.1 Premises Licence: It is a prerequisite that you comply with all requirements regarding licensable activities within the premises you are using / have booked. The University can provide detailed information upon request.
- 20.2 Performing Rights: the Venue is licensed for concerts or dancing with the Performing Rights Society Limited. It is the responsibility of the Client to ensure that playlists are provided to Event Exeter in order to satisfy the legislation on Performing Rights. Please note that the cost of room hire is not in respect of any liability under the Performing Right Society legislation. Any costs incurred under this legislation will be re-charged to the hirer.
- 20.3 Foreign Entertainers Unit, if applicable, is payable by Client.

21. Furniture and Seating Arrangements

Furniture and seating will be arranged between the Client and Event Exeter. Details of the Client's seating and furniture proposals should be confirmed at the point of confirming the booking. Where furniture layout charges are significant or turnaround times are tight, additional staffing charges will be applied at a pre-agreed rate.

22. Waste Disposal

The University is firmly committed to the principles and practises of environmental sustainability in its activities across the institution. As such the University expects its customers and third party associates to demonstrate a responsible approach. The Client is responsible for all waste generated by the Event. All paper and cardboard waste can be disposed of by the University providing it is clearly marked as recycling. Recycling facilities are available and if necessary additional facilities can be provided for your Event.

23. Disputes

If there is a complaint or dispute arising out of this Agreement, this must be addressed either to the Wedding Co-ordinator at weddings@exeter.ac.uk or through the Business Improvement Team on 0300 555 0214 or at j.harvey@exeter.ac.uk. The issue will then be taken through the complaints procedure.

24. General

24.1 The rights and remedies of the University expressed in this Agreement shall be in addition and without prejudice to any other rights or remedies which may be available to the University at common law or under statute.

24.2 All bookings accepted by the University are subject to these Terms and Conditions and this Agreement which supersede all prior representations by Event Exeter or any of its employees and override any other terms and conditions stipulated or incorporated or referred to by the Client in any negotiations, and this Agreement and these Terms and Conditions are the only terms and conditions upon which the University agrees to perform this Agreement, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the University.

24.3 No modification or alteration of this Agreement shall be enforceable, save as otherwise provided in these Terms and Conditions, unless agreed in writing by the University and the Client.

24.4 No waiver or delay on the part of the University to exercise any right or remedy available to it, in terms of this Agreement or otherwise shall operate as a waiver of that or any other right or remedy nor shall any partial exercise preclude any other further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

24.5 Any waiver by the University of any breach by the Client is not a waiver of any subsequent breach.

24.6 This Agreement does not create, confer or purport to confer any benefit or right enforceable by any person not a party to it by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

24.7 Should any provision of this Agreement be found by any competent authority to be invalid, unenforceable or unreasonable, it shall be severed from the remainder of this Agreement which shall continue in full force and effect.

24.8 This Agreement is personal to the Client who shall not be entitled to assign or transfer in whole or part the benefit and/or the burden thereof without the University's prior written consent.

24.9 All notices to be given by either Party to the other under this Agreement shall be validly served only in writing and delivered personally or sent by first class prepaid post or facsimile to the respective addresses (or facsimile number) in the United Kingdom as the relevant party has notified for such purpose, and in the case of posting shall be deemed to have been properly served on the second day after the date of posting and in the case of facsimile shall be deemed to have been properly served on receipt of a successful transmission report. Unless advised otherwise the University's address for service is Northcote House, The Queen's Drive, Exeter EX4 4QJ.

24.10 The University warrants to the Client that all Personal Data (as defined in the Data Protection Act 1998) provided to the University in relation to this Agreement, shall be handled by the University strictly in accordance with said Act as amended, and with the provisions of any other applicable data protection legislation.

24.11 These Terms and Conditions and this Agreement shall not constitute and shall not be deemed to constitute any relationship of partnership or agency between the University and the Client and shall not in any way create a lease of the Venue or any University premises.

24.12 The University shall not be in breach of this Agreement nor liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under this Agreement if such delay or failure result from events, circumstances or causes beyond its reasonable control ("Force Majeure"). In such circumstances the University shall be entitled to a reasonable extension of the time for performing its obligations.

25. Filming and Photoshoots

If the Event includes any filming or photography on any of the University of Exeter campuses or within its venues then the University standard filming and photography Terms and Conditions shall apply, which can be accessed at www.exeter.ac.uk/designstudio/checklist/ and the Client shall fully comply with the same.

A) Strobe Lighting, Pyrotechnics, Lasers and Theatrical Smoke

A.1 The use of strobe, pyrotechnics, lasers or theatrical smoke for an Event is subject to a separate code of conduct which is available on request. Requests together with a risk assessment and detailed plan must be made in writing to Event Exeter at least 28 days prior to the Event.

A.2 Advance notification must be given if theatrical smoke is to be used in order to consider the presence of automatic fire detectors. Smoke or vapour must not be allowed to drift into exits, stairwells, corridors or escape routes.

A.3 An on-site strobe, smoke, laser, pyrotechnic check will be carried out at an agreed time by the University's Fire Officer. The Fire Officer will grant final permission for the smoke/laser/pyrotechnics to be used during the Event and may impose conditions. Any costs involved in providing these checks will be recharged to the Client.

A.4 In the case of strobe lighting appropriate warning signage should be displayed.
